

International Press-in Association

Admission Guidance for Student Members

About IPA

The IPA is the academic organization to explicate the unseen phenomena and mechanism of underground by the Press-in Engineering in close coordination with various technical fields such as geotechnical, environmental, mechanical, construction and instrumentation engineering.

Various benefits for Student Members

▲ Activities

- International Conference (ICPE)
- Press-in engineering seminars
- Provision of a wide range of information on civil and geotechnical engineering through newsletters and website
- Press-in engineering publications
- Free lending of books from the library

▲ Benefits

- No annual membership fees
- Attend events at member rates
- Purchase publications at member rates
- Submission of papers to the conferences and seminars
- Receive the latest information in a timely manner
- Opportunities to interact with researchers and practitioners

ICPE

Technical Committee

Newsletter

How to join

Free!

Please visit the following address or scan the QR code.

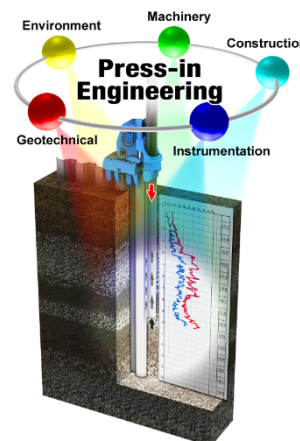

<https://www.press-in.org/en/regist/mail/input/03>

Register Now !

Press-in Engineering

This is an academic field in which experts from a wide range of fields related to Press-in technologies work together in a cross-cutting approach.

5F, Sanwa Konan Bldg, 2-4-3 Konan, Minato-ku, Tokyo 108-0075, Japan

Website : www.press-in.org