

Dear IPA members

Announcement of the Ordinary General Assembly 2023

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to your continued support and contributions for the IPA activities.

I hereby would like to make an announcement to call for the Ordinary General Assembly 2023 in accordance with Chapter V of Constitution and you are invited to exercise your voting rights as IPA Member(s).

Your vote is very essential commitment to support IPA activities and its management. Please review all the Agenda and vote on them during the voting period, mentioned below. The quorum of the General Assembly shall be a majority of IPA Individual members and Corporate members in accordance with Article 22, Chapter V of the Constitution. Therefore, I would like to request all the IPA members to exercise your voting rights for the General Assembly 2023 to support IPA for successful future activities.

I hope that IPA members will participate in the General Assembly in a proactive manner.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Chun Fai Leung
President of the IPA
